A true icon of mid-century modern design, the Woodard Sculptura patio collection has returned, and its classic, enduring look has been rendered in even more enduring fashion: Painstakingly handcrafted of woven wire and available in a choice of colors, the Sculptura chair, bench and end table have an advanced, protective finish that can withstand the unfriendliest weather conditions. With extraordinary craftsmanship in every detail, Sculptura patio furniture, like its iconic style, is sure to last through the ages.
